This theater comes again into prominence, this week, by dint of Mr. Palmer's production of "The Hunchback," which will be acted here to-night, with Miss Clara Morris as Julia, Mr. Frederick Robinson a Master Walter, Mc. C. R. Thorne, jr., as Sir Thomas Clifford, Mr. Stewart Robson as Modus, and Miss Kate Clax-ton as Helen. We understand that this sterling old play is to be set with handsome, appropriate scenery, and in a careful manner. It deserves all this respect, and we do not believe its revival will prove in vain.

Miss Neilson's Juliet may be seen to-night at the Lyceum Theater. To-morrow night she will enact Rosalind. "Mooreroft." cut, condensed, and improved, will be offered every night at the Fifth Avenue Theater. New features are frequently introduced into the variety bill at the Olympic. A play called "Norman Leslie" is lu preparation at Niblo's Theater. Mr. Raymond acts Colonel Sellers at the Park Theater. Mr. Frederic Maccabe varies his clever and amusing entertainment at Steinway Hall, where he will continue to amuse this public. Mr. Wallack will make no change of bill at "The Romance of A Poor Young Man" is drawing crowded houses. Minstrelsy reigns and please and prospers at the Opera House of Dan Bryant and the Hall of the San Francisco Minstrels. There is a heavy pressure upon our space, and these matters can only now receive a passing mention.

Mr. Beecher's lecture agent in Boston publishes a letter vindicating the former from petty criticism upon his lectures. He says: "Mr. Beecher lectured in Boston on Tuesday night to the largest audience of the season. Nearly 1,100 evening tickets were sold-the largest sale for years-and yet the price was doubled, $1 each. During the last six years, to my personal knowledge, no lecturers excepting Gough, Clemens, George Macdonald, Thomas Nast, and Anna Dickinson, have ever even approximated to such sales. POLITICAL NOTES.

Salary grabbers, a word in your ear, if you please. The Chicago Tribune has discovered that of the 63 Congressmen elected thus far only one took his back pay. One chance in 63 is a pretty slim prospect for you Don't you wish you had put it back, as the newspapers advised you to !

There seems to be great similarity between the political situation in this State and in Massachusetts. The Springfield Republican says: "If Mr. Talbot has any triends in this canvass it seems only friendly to notify them that he is being 'traded off' hereabouts ir the most remorseless fashion. Whether the same thing is going on upon the same wholesale scale in other sec tions of the Commonwealth we don't know. If it is then the only remaining question is about the probable size of Mr. Gaston's majority." A Democratic impority in Massachusetts! About what would be the value of Third-term stock after that?

It is rather hopeless business being a Democrat in Rhode Island. At the election for Governo last April the party leaders were so discouraged that they made no nomination. This Fall they mustered courage enough to nominate candidates for Congress, but both the nominees have declined, and the probabi ity is that no other neminations will be made. The Republican nominees are both men of integrity and average ability, who would have been elected anyway, and who will be returned now without opposition. Neither of them can approach in ability or fitness to the Hon. George H. Browne, who was the choice of the Democrats in the H4 District.

The latest returns give the Democrats a alear majority of 10 on joint ballot in the Indiana Legis latere, over both Republicans and Independents. Bar ter, the author of the Liquer Law which bears his name. was defeated by a majority of one vote. The election of United States Senator is likely to turn largely on the corrency question. Mr. J. E. McDonald, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, bas claimed the position as a reward of his labors. He is a bard money man. Taking advantage of this fact, the Hon. D. W. Voorhees, who is in many respects the most extreme rag money man in the country, has entered the field and is likely to make a formidable antagonist. If the Democrats stick to their platform their only logical course will be the election of Mr. Voorhees.

A pretty reasonable interpretation of the Journal: "The only shape in which the financial quesion entered into the canvass as a political element, was in so far as the panic of last year and its sequences were concerned. It is the disposition of the common mind to hold the party in power responsible for every evil of the times, from hog cholera to foreign wars, from deranged finances to the grasshopper plague. A good many un-thinking voters doubtless held the Republican party responsible for the financial panic of last Fall, and for the hard times and scarcity of money which have followed. But this was done without any particular process of reasoning, and without any reference to the platform utterances or probable future action of either party. It was simply an instinctive and not very intelligent desire to punish somebody for the hard times which everybody feels, but which nobody acknowledges the responsibility for, or exactly knows the cause of. So little part did the for, or exactly knows the cause of. So little part did the question of contraction or expansion play in the campaign, that probably not one in a thousand voters in the State could tell to-day whether he intended to vote, or did vote, for or against one or the other." The Journal might have gone a little farther, and admitted that the people were determined to protest against a third term for a National Administration which had displayed such conspicuous incapacity for solving the financial and other problems which have been before the national council.

POINTS IN THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

The Democrats claim that they can count on the " silent vote " this time.

There is no lack of personalties regarding the rival local candidates in the Buffalo papers of either The Hon. Jonah Sanford has been renom-nated for the Assembly in St. Lawrence County. He was elected last year by a large majority, and has proved satisfactory to all of his party. C. N. Marcellus of Albany, a prominent ember of the temperance party, says: memoer of the temperance party, says:

"If I thought for an instant that the prohibition movement was to be run for the interest of either the Democratic or Republican parties, it would be a source of regret for years to think that I had been engaged in its councils at all; but I solemnly believe that it is the only way possible to rid our State of its run curse."

The Republican Convention at Carmel on Saturday nominated Hamilton Fish, jr., by acclamation for the Assembly. Last year Mr. Fish had 431 majority Lewis H. Clark of Wayne County has declined to be the Prohibition candidate for Congress in the XXVIth District. He is in favor of stringent tem-perance legislation, but is not, he says, a member of the Prohibition party.

The Rev. Thomas K. Beecher has begun a review of the proposed Constitutional Amendments in The Elmira Gazette. Commenting on the amendment to Article II. he says in effect that the people of the United States have never been in favor of universal suffrage

Harmony has been restored in the XXVIth Congressional District, where it was said Jacob Wilson had not been regularly nominated. He is now assured the full support of the Liberals and Democrats, and is likely also to receive many Republican votes. The Republican Convention of Herkimer County appears to have been in a very complimentary mood. The resolutions it adopted were, The Illion Gazettee says, in substance as follows:

1. Indorses the State platform and candidates.

2. Compliments the Hon. C. L. Merriam.

3. Complimentary to Mr. Bagley, and promises him

4. Complimentary to Senator McGowen and the Hon. Warner Miller. Varner Miller.

5. Expresses gratification at the acceptance of his enominaton by the Hon. W. Miller.

6. Denounces the "Taird Term" dectrine.

There is considerable dissatisfaction evinced among Republicans with Harlo Hakes, the party nominee for Congress in the XXIXth District. The Allegang County Reporter, a leading Republican paper, has opposed him from the outset, and now says: squeal' because we speak for the people, and the people have been disfranchised by the Ring. Fraud and ple have been distrancinsed by the King. Fraud and oppression have ruled the roost this year because in former years they have been unrebuked. A tame submission new binds the fetters on us through succeeding years. The precedent grows stronger by repetition. It shall not be repeated again if we can help it."

Gen. E. F. Jones of Binghamton, the Liberal and Democratic nominee for Congres in the XXVIIIth District, has excellent prospects, his popularity being very great, and his character unimpeachable. served with credit during the war, having commanded the farmous Sixth Massachusetts, which left Boston six days after the firing on Fort Sumter, and was attacked when passing through Baltimore. He afterward raised and commanded the Twenty-sixth Massachusetts, and received the brevet of brigadier-general. Gen. Jones has been proprietor some years of an extensive factory at Binghamton, and by his enterprise and public spirit has advanced the interest of that city.

here a falling off of 549, or s per cent, as compared with the registry of 1872. In the IVta District there is a failing off of 495, or 7 per cent, as compared with that year. In the XIVta District 400, or 8 per cent, and in the XVita 83, or about 1 per cent. In the strong Republican districts there is also an approach to the registry of two years ago. In the VIIth District there is a failing off of 717, or 12 per cent; in the IXth District 400, or 5 per cent; in the XIth District 278, or 4 per cent. The average of these districts abows that the registration of Democratic voters has failing off be per cent, and of the Renablican voters, 2 per cent. In the XIXth, XXth, and XXIst Assembly Districts, it will be observed, there is an increase in the registry. This is accounted for by the increase in population 40 the upper part of the city, and by the contests for Assembly in those districts. The total vote in 1872 was 132,056, or a failing off of 16,914 as compared with the registry of that year, or about 11 per cent. If there is the same proportion this year the vote will be about 130,000.

The Police Commissioners were in session until the close of the registry lists in order to take immediate action in case of any incompetent or refractory inspectors, who might attempt to prevent registration at the last moments. One of the inspectors in the VIIth Election District of the IId Assembly District was reported drunk-during the afternoon, and the Police Commissioners, proceeding to his district, summarily removed him and appointed another critizen.

THE BROOKLYN CANVASS.

BRITTON DECLARED UNFIT BY A SUB-COMMITTEE OF THE ONE HUNDRED-A CHALLENGE TO BRITTON

TO DISCUSS THE JUSTICE OF HIS REMOVAL-MINOR INCIDENTS. The Democratic party managers in Kings

County have been very anxious to secure the indorse-ment of Winchester Britton by the Committee of One Hundred. The Committee on Nominations appointed by the One Hundred met on Saturday night, Gao. B. Farrington in the chair. The Democratic, Republican, and Independent nominations were discussed at considerable length. It was decided to present Controller Schroeder to the One Handred as a fit caudidate for indersement. A resolution declaring that Winchester Britton was unfit for election to the position of District Attorney, was passed with only three dissenting votes. It was also resolved that the Committee should make no discrimina tion between the Republican and National Democratic candidates for the District-Attorneyship. A proposition to recommend Loudovic Bennett, the Republican candi date, for the position of County Treasurer was voted down. The remaining offices on the ticket will be oom sidered at a meeting of the Committee to be held this

In accepting the nomination for District Attorney of the Ring Democrats, Winchester Britton alluded to bis removal by Gov. Dix as the result of a corrupt conspiracy of bad men; and The Eagle named Col. A. C. Davis and Judge S. D. Morris as among the conspirators referred to. These gentlemen have been urged by numerous Independent Democrats to appear at some of the anti-Ring meetings and make public reply to the assertion. Col. Davis, in response, has proposed instead to discuss with Mr. Britton the question of the justice or injustice of his removal by Gov. Dix, the discussion to be confined to the record of his misdemeanors as proved before Commissioner Spetr. - Col. Davis says he has no disposition to answer idle and baseless insinuations, but is prepared to show that Mr. Britton's removal was a righteous act of Gov. Dix, which unhappily was delayed too long for the true interests of Brooklyn. He is not willing, however, to make an attack without giving Mr. Britton opportunity to reply; and it is understood he will propose a public discussion of the issu at an early date. Both Britton and Davis are sharp, incisive speakers, and upon such a question what each would say would be of great interest to Brooklyn citizens. Having made the attack in his speech of acceptance, Mr. Britton, it is supposed, will hardly decline the challenge, particularly as the question involves his whole "stock in trade" as a caudidate in this canvass.

The National Democrats do not seem at all displeased with the Hon. Wm. E. Robinson's desertion. On the contrary, they are more confident of weakening the regular Democratic organization, now that Mr. Robinson has ceased to misrepresent them. On Saturday the Hd Congressional District Republican Convention accepted Col. E. T. Wood, the National candidate for Congress. This in connection with the fact that D. P. Barnardthas promised to run for the District-Attorneyship encourages the National organization. The organization will hold meetings in every ward in the city during the pres-

The name of ex-Mayor Samuel Booth has been mentioned for the nomination, but it is stated by some of his friends that he will not It was hoped by many Republicans that Ludovic Bennett, Republican candidate for County Treasurer, would withdraw in favor of a more available man. Mr. Bennett, however, has not yet given much encouragement to those who have pressed him to withdraw from the race, still he may withdraw. Rumors to the contrary notwithstanding, Gen. Catlin and his friends say that he has no intention of declining to run against Britton. The young men of the party are very enthusiastic in their support of the General, and insist that he must be a condidate. In regard to the Congressional contest, the Republican leaders are not confident of winning even one out of the three in the field. In the Hd District Schumaker (Dem.) will be elected without question. In the HIId District the Democrats will nominate S. B. Chittenden, if he will accept. If Mr. Chittenden consents, his chances of defeating the regular Republican candidate, P. B. Ostrander, will be good. There are many Republicans in the HIId District who will vote for Mr. Chittenden, if the opportunity offers, because they know he belongs to their party, and because they believe the nomination of Ostrander was forced by the leaders. In the HVh District the nomination of A. M. Bliss, by the Liberals and Democrats, is conceded to be a strong move. Mr. Bennett, the Republican candidate, must work very hard to win in this district, for it is largely Democratic. the party are very enthusiastic in their support of the to win in this district, for it is largely Democratic. probabilities are that he will be beaten, for Mr. Bliss is very popular in the district, and besides is an active, working politician.

The full nominations for Assemblymen have not yet been made by either party. The Republicans have nominated S. C. Carli in the Hd District, A. A. Misters in the Hid District, John H. Clyne in the IVth District, John P. Short in the VIth District, Jacob Worth in the VIIIh District, and John F. Stiuson in the IXIn District. The Democrats have not been so harmonious in their conventions as their opponents. In several districts they have been unable or unwilling to agree. In the IXI District, after the exhibition of considerable bad feeling, John Connell of the First Ward was given the nomination. Fire Commissioner McLaughlin, the "Boss's" nephew, was auxious to nominate David Aitken, but was unable to carry his point. This is the first defeat which Mr. McLaughin has met with in his district for several years. In the Hd District no nomination has been made. If Gen. T. Dikin of the American Edemen's Team can be induced to accept the nomination, it is believed that he can win, although the district is Republican. In the Hid District, composed of the Sixth and Twelfth Wards, there appears to be no probability of a nomination. Tae Sixth Ward desire to nominate Philip Clare; the Twelfth want M. J. Coffey. The feeling between the adherents of these two candidates runs high, and there is no doubt that the General Committee will take the matter in hand. In any event there will be a "stump" Democratic candidates in the field. Clare ran once before, and says that he was counted out. INCIDENTS OF THE LOCAL CANVASS. A joint meeting of the Committees of the

Chambers of Commerce, Importers' and Grocers' Board of Trade, Cheap Transportation Association, Butter and Cheese Exchange, German Property Holders' Organiza-tion, and Union League, will be held at the rooms of the Chamber, at 1 o'clock to-day, to make provision for the printing and distribution of the ballots in favor of the adoption of the Constitutional Amendments. At a meeting of the members of the Butter and Cheese Exchange, on Saturday, to consider the proposed amendments to the State Constitution as bearing on commercial matters, the following was adopted: Resolved. That it is our duty as citizens to use every means in our mover to secure votes in favor of the adoption of the Constitutions (mendments. It is also resolved that a Committee of Five be appointed to confer with other committees appointed by the different commercia

E. R. Meade, who is the Tammany candidate for Congress in the Vth District, has felt compelled to write in self-defense: "A persistent attempt having been made to mislead the voters of this district by misrepresenting the facts concerning my residence. I desire representing the facts concerning my residence. I desire to state, once for all, that I have resided in this city for over 15 years, and in this Congressional District for a considerable portion of that time. I have never resided in Chenango County since I left there at the age of 14 years, although it is true I am the owner of some property in that county, and that during the past three years my family has spent some time there during the Bunmer months. The further charge made against me, that I was connected with the prosecution of G-n. Michael Corcoran, is an unqualified and malicious faise-hood."

United States District-Attorney George Bliss, District-Attorney Phelps, Assistant District Attorney Lyon, and Assistant Corporation Counsel Geo. P. Andrews, on Saturday cailed on the Police Commissioners and asked that a separate box be provided for the reception of the ballots for Aldermen-atvided for the reception of the ballots for Aldermen-at-Large. They based their request on Chapter 515 of the Laws of 1874, which was passed on the 30th of April, and which provides that "there shall also be elected six Aldermen-at-Large, to be voted for one separate ballot." D. B. Hasbrouck, Chief of the Bureau of Election, thought that the intention of the act was merely to declare that the ballot for Aldermen-at-Large should be separate from the ballot cast for the Aldermen in the Senatorial Districts. The Board of Police finally decided to ask the advice of the Corporation Counsel in the matter.

The Liberal Republicans of the VIIIth Senatorial District nominated on Saturday, Andrew Biessing, William H. McCarthy, and Henry D. Purroy for Aldermen.

The Xth Assembly District Republican Convention met on Saturday evening at No. 30 Avenue A. George J. Dambmann presiding. Col. Charles S. Strong was nominated for the Assembly by acciamation. The was nominated for the Assembly by acciamation. The Republican Aldermanie Convention for the Vith Senterial District met in the same place, the Hen. Solon B. Smith presiding. Chester A. Southwark and Caspar A. Baaden were nominated for Aldermen. The Republican Ratification meeting this evening at the Cooper Institute promises to be a large one. There will be addresses by Senator Edmunds of Vermont, George William Curtis, the Hon. John L. Swift, the Hon. Wm. Orton, and others. Glees will be sung by the Anderson brothers. The Liberal Republican Convention of the

was Chairman. Gen. John Cochrane was nominated for Congress. Frederick Gugel was nominated for Alder-man, and Joseph Strack, the Tammany candidate for the same position.

The Independent German Association of the Twenty-second Ward on Saturday evening accepted the nomination of Wilson Berryman, Republican candidate

The German Association of the Vth Assembly District on Saturday evening met at No. 242 Spring-st., and expressed approval of the Auti-Tammany ticket.

The German Republicans of the XIXth Assembly District on Saturday evening accepted the Re-publican County ticket. Sixtus Charles Kapff was nom-inated for Assemblyman.

SPEECH BY SPEAKER BLAINE.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Oct. 25 .- Last night a large Republican meeting was held here, and was addressed by Speaker Blaine. The Opera House was filled to its atmost capacity, many being present from the neighboring towns and counties. His address gave great sat isfaction, and received the most unqualified approval. The Hon. H. Boardman Smith, Representative in Congress for this District, presided. Mr. Blaine leaves to-morrow moranog for Syracuse, where he will speak in the evening.

GEN. BUTLER'S CAMPAIGN.

Boston, Oct. 25.-Gen. B. F. Butler has taken the stamp, and will speak in the towns of his distriet this week. Thompson, the opposition candidate, will follow him.

THE XITH DISTRICT-BAILEY AND SCHULTZ

To the Editor of The Tribune. SIR: It is amazing to see Jackson S. Schultz denying that Isaac H. Balley is a friend and follower of Butler's. Mr. Schultz cannot have been about this club very much in the days when the foundations of the molety jobs were laid. Everybody then knew Bailey as the warm friend and defender of Butler. There was a little set of cronies constantly seen together Butler was in town. Murphy, Bailey, and Frank Howe were its chief members: George Bliss was another.

Does n't Mr. Schultz know that these are the men who controlled the Custom-house Convention the other day Doesn't he knaw that if they had n't been perfectly sat afted with Mr. Bailey he could no more have got nominated than Mayor Havemeyer! Personally, I think Bailey is a good fellow; but politically, I should as soon vote for any other member of the Custom-house Jayne and Sanborn party. Mr. Bailey's relations to New-York merchants might keep him from sustaining Custom house oppression, but his general affiliations and political notions couldn't help making him a representative of what the other day you happily called Bitterism in politics. Schuitz means well about it, however. He and Bailey have been leather merchants together, and have been personal cronies together for a long time. He believes in his friends, and thinks he can keep Bailey straight. Yours, OLD MEMBER. Union League Club, Oct. 24, 1874.

TICKETS FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMEND-MENTS.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: In your timely article in this morning's paper, "The Amendments Not Safe," you say, " Finally, be sure you have a ticket and that your neighbor has one, even though you have to write it out." " What is everybody's business is nobody's business," and I would suggest that the easiest and surest method of carrying those amendments that should be adopted will be for The Tribene to print the requisite tickets, as more thoughtful and painstaking voters can be reached in this way than any other. Yours,

A. W. M. **

New-York, Oct. 24, 1874.

[THE TRIBUNE hopes to be able to do this a day or two before the election; but it would be a great mistake for organizations seeking to secure the adoption of the Constitutional Amendments to depend on any newspaper for tickets.-Ed.]

KELLY AND MURPHY COMPARED. to the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: The communication of "R. R." in yesterday's TRIBUNE, in regard to the political power and management of John Kelly and Thomas Murphy, although generally true and correct, is, for the following reasons, imperfect: John Kelly is true to his party, and cannot be seduced into the support of the Republican party or its candidates by bribes or promises of political preferment. Thomas Murphy has been and will be whenever soured by disappointment or whenever fat obs or the spoils of office hold out sufficient inducement. One is a Tammany warrior, with the blade of his scalping-knife keen; the other a pseudo Republican, with the Ring mark plainly seen. OLD LINE REPUBLICAN. New-York. Oct. 24, 1874.

MR. BRYANT ON THE THIRD TERM. Mr. William Cullen Bryant appears so rarely now in the columns of his own paper that an article from his pen always shines there with peculiar lusetr. Last week there was sone in which he declared specifically against a Third Term, and announced that under no circumstances would be support it.

no circumstances would be support it.

We know that by some the idea that it is seriously contemplated by a class of politicians, not without the power of influencing a political convention, to nominate Gen. Grant for a third term has been ridiculed as a groundless fancy. What may be his wishes in the matter we do not profess, to know, but this we are assured of, that the hosts of dependants upon Executive layor of whom we have spoken are engaged in a plan to present him to the public a third time as a candidate for the Presidency. Nor do we find anybody bold enough to deny that he will accept the noningation it offered him by a convention of the Republical party. For our part we are by no means sure that the plan will not succeed so far as concerns the nomination. It is long since the third term began to be talked of, and there has been ample time for arrangements to secure a vote for Gen. ceed so far as concerns the nomination. It is long since the third term began to be failed of, and there has been ample time for arrangements to secure a vote for Gen. Grant in the nominating convention. The vast array of persons holding offices under the Federal Government, many of whom—for the truth must be told—are unworthy, regard the third election of Gen. Grant as of the greatest importance to their interests. It is natural, therefore, that they should desire to continue Gen. Grant in office as the only security against being thrust out of office themselves. It is natural that they should exert themselves to bring about this result, laying their plans at lesure and with the greatest cauten. That they will succeed we do not say, but there is a possibility of their success.

So causeless, however, is this innovation upon the settled usages of the country, so inexcusable on any pretence of present necessity, and so pregnant with danger for the future, that we feel ourselves bound frankly to say that from whatever quarter the nomi-

danger for the future, that we feel outselves some frankly to say that from whatever quarter the nomi-nation of President Grant for a third term may proceed it will meet no support from this journal. In saying this we do not speak for ourselves alone, but for multi-tudes of those who were faithful members of the Re-publican party in the day of its greatest purity and usefulness. In the same issue appeared another article, evidently from a pen little seen in those columns, declaring that the President of the United States seemed desirous to leave the Republican party no alternative but suicide or his nomination, to destroy itself or be destroyed. It concludes: "The time is passed for any words of healing from the Governor of New-York to do any good. If any one now can save the Re-publican party from destruction it is the President, publican party from destruction it is the Freshent, and the President only. If President Grant, however, desires to make this New-York election a Presidential instead of a Gubernatorial election, he is pursuing just the course to accomplish his parpose. And we venture to predict that if he continues his present tacitum policy he will be satisfied with the result, but upon the principle that people are generally satisfied when "they have got enough."
